TRIUMPH BASKETBALL TEAM CULTURE

The goal of Triumph Basketball is to provide athletic and social development throughout the year to young athletes who exhibit the desire, drive and attitude to grow as players. We firmly believe that if a young athlete meeting the aforementioned criteria wishes to experience the sport of basketball in a highly competitive environment, they should be rewarded with the opportunity to train and improve. For this reason, we keep our costs low with the understanding that parents, friends and additional members of the athlete's support system will be active in assisting with fundraising activities.

If there is a financial obstacle, applications can be made to Jumpstart or Kidsport to assist with costs, referencing "Northstar Sports Foundation", a Non-Profit Organization which will contribute to registration fees for athletes who qualify. Additionally, considerations for a discount can be made for those athletes who commit their time to community service or volunteer work; we aim to continue establishing our culture of hard work and celebration of each other's successes, and this is made possible through the inclusion of any young athlete who is willing to do what it takes to be a part of our community.
